

WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY CELEBRATIONS

World environment day celebrations of the University was kicked off with a massive tree planting initiative on June, 5, 2017 at the College of Forestry and other campuses at Vellanikkara. The programme was inaugurated by the Hon: Vice-Chancellor, Prof. (Dr.) P. Rajendran, Director of research, Dr. P. Indira Devi, chaired the function and Registrar, KAU, Dr. S. Leenakumari welcomed the gathering.

World Environment Day Celebrations, 2017 being inaugurated by the Hon: Vice-Chancellor, Prof. (Dr.) P. Rajendran on June, 5, 2017 at the College of Forestry.

TREE PLANTING INITIATIVE AT AIKKUNNU, VENGINISSERY

Under the auspices of the Agroforestry Unit of the College, the students and faculty of the College undertook a massive tree planting programme at Venginisserry from 28-30, June, 2017, based on the request of the Venginisserry Co-operative Bank. Besides afforesting the destroyed hillocks due to mining earth and small minerals for quarrying etc., with suitable tree species, the College actively participated in the 'Gnattuvela chantha' organised by the bank for the local populace. The Dean, College of Forestry, Dr. K. Vidyasagan addressed the audience during the concluding session of the week long celebrations of Venginisserry Co-operative bank which Adv. V.S. Sunilkumar the Hon: Pro-Chancellor inaugurated.

Inauguration by the President, Paaralam Grama Panchayath

Planting of the rehabilitated hillock by COF students along with local villagers

A view of the rehabilitation work of the hillock through afforestation

Sale of tree seedlings in the exhibition of the 'Gnaattuvela chantha'

Dr. V. Jamaludheen leading the field planting session

Dr. E.V. Anoop, delivering the lead lecture to farmers

Sale and display of seeds, seedlings and coco wood furniture items during the exhibition of the 'Gnaattuvela chantha'

COF Dean, Dr. K. Vidyasagan speaks during the concluding session of the week long celebrations of Venginisserry Co-operative bank.

